lengthening and virulent creatures terrorize an ever-growing number of people. Mimi (portrayed by Liane Balaban) is the eldest of the group. Her father was also a policeman, and his death in the line of duty convinced her to take a more responsible path in life. Nurse Mary (portrayed by Catherine Zeta-Jones) is a professional who never let her personal life affect her job. But after returning home to find her husband gone, her world falls apart and she begins to question her responsibility. Joe (portrayed by Lian Neeson) is a salesman who comes in contact with the virulent creatures and tries to use his experiences to benefit his business. Greg (portrayed by Brian Cox) is the married couple's young son, and learns how to control his new enemy. Elder (portrayed by Thomas Jane) is the oldest surviving member of the group and reveals to them what they're up against. This movie is rated R for strong violence and disturbing images. Paul Engel wanted to do the music for this but ultimately couldn't due to scheduling conflicts. The film instead went with Goblin and the soundtrack was released by Mute. Randy Rasmussen also did the production design for this film. A movie called 'R' starts with a great beginning, with a great story. A girl is seen diving into the pool of the hotel. That's the place we go to have the luxury of losing ourselves. And if you have really good directors, you get great cinematography, like the picture, the best thing about the pi
